

PALAC ... where people and ideas meet

STUDY DISCUSSION PROGRAMS SUMMER 2026

PALAC offers continuing liberal arts education to adults in the San Gabriel Valley and beyond. If you enjoy the excitement and stimulation of discussing ideas in a new learning situation, whatever your educational background, you're welcome in any of PALAC's programs.

The locations for all groups appear after the discussion group's description and meeting details. For outdoor groups, if the weather is bad, the facilitator may choose to hold the session for that day on Zoom rather than outdoors. For groups that are in a park, please bring your hat, chair, snack, and drink. For all in-person sessions, up-to-date vaccinations are encouraged.

JOIN US PALAC offers additional advantages and activities to members. Half-year membership is just $15 per person or $25 per couple for the remainder of the 2026 calendar year. Call 626-797-2380 for details or mail your registration and check to PALAC, 1015 N. Lake Ave., Suite 108, Pasadena, CA 91104.

REGISTER If you haven't already paid your 2026 membership dues, allowing you to pay for groups at the discounted membership rate, do so now. Please send your dues and group payments in with your Summer registration form.

Most groups are limited to 10-15 participants. This provides a comfortable, intimate atmosphere for discussion. Early registration will help assure you a place in your selected group. If you register close to the time the group begins, please contact the office to verify group openings. You will receive confirmation of your selected group(s) by email if you have email.

Get your registration form in ASAP. Please! Once again, we will use a lottery system to give everyone an equal chance to get in their chosen groups. For those discussion groups and safaris that are oversubscribed, the office will hold a lottery on June 22nd. Be sure to get your registration form and payment to the office before the lottery. And don't forget, dues-paying members receive priority.

We will order books approximately three weeks before each group begins. If you plan to drop a group, please let us know before then or we will not be able to refund you the cost of the book.

New facilitators and hosts are the lifeblood of PALAC. Please call the office to volunteer: 626-797-2380.

RESCHEDULED FROM SPRING

219 Wolf Hall by Hilary Mantel

England in the 1520s is a heartbeat from disaster. If the king dies without a male heir, the country could be destroyed by civil war. Henry VIII wants to annul his marriage of twenty years and marry Anne Boleyn. The pope and most of Europe oppose him. Into this impasse steps Thomas Cromwell: a wholly original man, a charmer and a bully, both idealist and opportunist, astute in reading people, and implacable in his ambition. But Henry is volatile: one day tender, one day murderous. Cromwell helps him break the opposition, but what will be the price of his triumph? Wolf Hall won the Man Booker Prize and National Book Critics Circle Award for Fiction, 2009. In inimitable style, Hilary Mantel's New York Times bestselling Wolf Hall is "a darkly brilliant reimagining of life under Henry VIII. . . . Magnificent." (The Boston Globe). ISBN-13: 978-1250806710 There is very limited parking at the host's location; car pooling is strongly suggested.

308 Civil Eats "Civics and the Food System: The Federal Government's Role in What We Eat, and What's Happening as the System Is Being Pressure-Tested"

This course examines the different federal agencies that oversee, regulate, and shape food policy and practice. It explains the biggest food policy levers, including the Farm Bill, the Food Safety Modernization Act, the Child Nutrition Reauthorization, and others, along with actions states can take. It also reviews changes implemented and proposed since the start of Trump's second administration, including key provisions of Trump's One Big Beautiful Bill. This is a four-part email course ($20). Each participant will independently enroll and complete the email course before the group meets to discuss the materials.

309 To the End of the Land by David Grossman

Just before his release from service in the Israeli army, Ora's son Ofer is sent back to the front for a major offensive. In a fit of preemptive grief and magical thinking, so that no bad news can reach her, Ora sets out on an epic hike in the Galilee. She is joined by an unlikely companion, Avram, a former friend and lover with a troubled past, and as they sleep out in the hills, Ora begins to conjure her son. Ofer's story, as told by Ora, becomes a surprising balm both for her and for Avram. ISBN-13: 978-0307476401

312 The Death of Ivan Ilyich by Leo Tolstoy

An intense and moving examination of death and the possibilities of redemption, here is a powerful translation by the award-winning Richard Pevar and Larissa Volokhonsky. Ivan Ilyich is a middle-aged man who has spent his life focused on his career as a bureaucrat and is emotionally detached from his wife and children. After an accident, he finds himself on the brink of an untimely death, which he sees as a terrible injustice. Face to face with his mortality, Ivan begins to question everything he has believed about the meaning of life. The Death of Ivan Ilyich is a masterpiece of psychological realism and philosophical profundity that has inspired generations of readers. The link to the translated 64-page text will be provided to participants prior to the first meeting.

313 Two Short Stories by George Saunders

One of the most important and blazingly original writers of his generation, George Saunders is an undisputed master of the short story. We will be reading two of his short stories, "Tenth of December" and "The Falls". George Saunders is the #1 New York Times bestselling author of thirteen books and story collections. He has received fellowships and awards from many distinguished national organizations. He teaches in the creative writing program at Syracuse University. Copies of the short stories will be provided to participants.

314 Two Masters of the Short Story

John Cheever (1912-1982) and Raymond Carver (1938-1988) are generally recognized as masters of their genre. But each had a very distinct style and explored a very different subject matter: button-down shirts and loafers for Cheever; blue-collar and construction attire for Carver. We will discuss Cheever's "The Enormous Radio" (The New Yorker, May 17, 1947), and Carver's "Elephant" (The New Yorker, June 9, 1986). Copies of the short stories will be provided to the participants approximately two weeks before the session.

Filling Out the Registration Form

Online

Both the brochure and the registration form are on the PALAC website. Go to the How to Participate page to find the links to both.

<https://palac-pasadena.info/how-to-participate/>

You may fill out the form online. After you have filled out the form, a pdf file will be generated which you can save and then email as an attachment to the PALAC office. If you pay by Zelle, you can both register and pay without printing or mailing anything! Note that you are not registering online, just filling out the form. You won't be registered until both your registration form and your payment (check or Zelle) are received by the PALAC office.

Of course, you may also print out the form at the end of this brochure (also available on the website), fill it in by hand, and mail it in.

Payment Options

You can continue to pay by check, but you can now pay by Zelle. The way PALAC is identified on Zelle is by its tag name, pasadenalac. Enter that tag in the place where you usually type a name, a phone number, or an email. If you pay by Zelle, you must still send your registration form to the PALAC office either by US mail or by email. Since your payment will not arrive at the PALAC office with your form, you must help us match up the two by writing an identifier such as your last name and date in the box provided on your registration form. You must also put this same information in the "message/purpose/reason/memo" box when making your Zelle payment. Failure to do both may result in your registration being delayed. Your use of Zelle does not affect your position in any lottery queue just because it arrives so quickly.

Option to purchase books yourself

The Board has decided that all books purchased for our groups will be sent directly from Amazon to your homes. However, if you wish to support another bookseller by purchasing your books there, the cost of any group will be $10 for members and $20 for non-members, unless there is a ticket or other expense involved. We have included the ISBN in our group descriptions to ensure that you purchase the correct edition of the book.

In our program brochure, PALAC publishes the cost of each discussion group. This includes the price of the book, convenient delivery to your home, and office overhead. If you choose to buy your own book rather than using the office's book delivery system, we request that you follow these simple steps:

- When filling out your registration form, adjust the price to $10 for members or $20 for non-members.
- When completing your registration form, check the option that says, "I will be responsible for buying my own books."
- Jot a note to yourself to remind yourself to order or buy the book. Be sure to order your book early to give the bookstore or online service time to check availability!
- Keep the ISBN in the brochure handy when ordering online or shopping at a store. This ensures you will have the same edition of the book as the rest of the group.

(Note: Buying your own book may end up costing you more than if the office orders the book for you.)
